Rehab Parlour — Anh Thy

The beauty of a dream come true is that it encourages others to follow their bliss.

Rehab Parlour, Best Salon winner in the Best of Fremont voting, is the product of hard work, passion and a professional, talented staff.

Owner Anh Thy, “a hairdresser with a dream,” possesses a vision that is community-oriented. It involves a “passion to build a family environment for not only the clients, but for the artists as well.”

Her salon team’s message about the voting keeps the same tone. “We would like to start off by thanking all those who voted for us and have followed the growth of Rehab.”

“Rehab Parlour’s No. 1 goal has always been to not only emphasize healthy, good-looking hair, but a comfortable environment and positive experience to encourage clients to return.”

Clients can expect a mix of dedication and style. “We are committed to being here to serve the community. We strive to continue to bring a new and modern look to the East Bay area,” the salon team adds.

And that includes keeping up with trends and techniques, as well as being a haven in the hustle and bustle of Bay Area life. Because their clients want to look and feel their best, Anh Thy and the team strive to better themselves.

“Rehab Parlour continues to educate its team members to use top-of-the-line products with the most updated education on hair,” she adds.

The salon’s services range from haircuts for women, men and children, to treatments, coloring and wash & blowdry, plus special-event makeup and wedding services.

Another goal? To keep growing along with the East Bay, deliver the amenities clients want, and to “provide a place to relax and enjoy and be pampered.”

Sounds like a happy-ever-after for all.
